Carolyn Koch

Friday's ASHA Member Of The Day and her husband Gary have become enthralled with the American Saddlebred, having bought their first mare a little more than a decade ago. However, it was their purchase of the broodmare Pretty Ribbons and the Santana's Charm foal by her side at Parker View Farm that would forever change their role in the breed. A lengthy background in breeding and showing champion Pugs honed her eye for conformation, which easily transferred to horses. Her history-making Pug, CH Kendoric's Riversong Mulroneys is the top winning Pug in the history of the breed, with 65 All-Breed Best In Show wins.

Her eye for quality resulted in that impulsive buy of a mare and foal with the result being the 2015 Five-Gaited World's Grand Champion Marc Of Charm. During this year's Lexington Junior League she sent her beautiful stallion to participate in Elisabeth Goth's Junior Exhibitor Party where several starry-eyed youngsters had the opportunity to meet the celebrity up close and personal. One young lady was even hoisted aboard the champion by trainer Lionel Ferreira.

A third generation elementary school teacher, her love of children is in her DNA. Her love of all things Saddlebred has also been the reason she has given her support to many different aspects of the sport, including the American Saddlebred Horse Museum and most recently donating the funds to replace the lighting in Stopher Walk. "She not only has champion Pugs and champion American Saddlebreds, she is also a champion of worthy causes," said ASHA Executive Director Bill Whitley.

With the retirement of her World's Grand Champion Marc Of Charm this week, that too will have a special twist. Inspired by the young lady who got to sit on Marc at Lexington this year, she created a contest for children between the ages of 7 and 10. The lucky winner was given the opportunity to sit on Marc during his retirement ceremony.

"The future of the breed looks very bright and promising," she said. "We need to make sure that there is enough interest, especially with the junior exhibitors and their families, and to that end, anything we can do with Marc to promote the breed and the sport I would love to do. I'm a firm believer in giving back and paying it forward."
